

PARENT'S CROSSOVER GUIDE FOR AOL OVER TO BSA

HOW YOUR ROLE EVOLVES THROUGH THE SCOUT OATH & SCOUT LAW

SCOUT LAW POINT

(Parent-Led)

(Youth-Led)

Trustworthy & Loyal	Parents Monitor Progress	Scouts Monitor Their Own Progress and Report it to Adult Leaders
Helpful & Friendly	Parents Step In	Scouts Solve Together
Courteous & Kind	Parents Guide	Youth Leaders Guide
Obedient	Parents Enforce Rules	Scouts Follow Youth Leadership
Cheerful, Thrifty, Brave	Parents Remove Obstacles	Scouts Face Challenges
Clean & Reverent	Parents Manage Routines	Scouts Manage Themselves

WHAT "YOUTH-LED" REALLY MEANS

Scouts develop leadership skills by leading meetings, campouts, and teaching skills to younger scouts.

WHAT DO PARENTS DO?

ROLE MODEL

Live the Scout Law by being a positive, supportive role model.

ENCOURAGE LEADERSHIP

Let Scouts lead, decide, and solve problems.

LEND A HAND

Volunteer to support troop activities and events.

SCOUTING AMERICA IS FOR EVERYONE

In Scouts BSA, your child takes the lead. With guidance from adult leaders, they'll have fun, build confidence, and grow important skills.
